This mutual fund is an alternative mutual fund. It is permitted to invest in asset classes or use investment strategies that are not permitted for other types of mutual funds. The specific strategies that differentiate this Fund from other types of mutual funds include the use of derivatives for hedging and non-hedging purposes, the increased ability to sell securities short, and the ability to borrow cash for investment purposes. While these strategies will be used in accordance with the Fund’s investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions, they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

This Fund has received exemptive relief to permit it to engage in short selling and cash borrowing in excess of the limits permitted under applicable securities legislation for alternative mutual funds. Pursuant to this relief, and consistent with the Fund’s investment objectives, the Fund may engage in short selling and cash borrowing, each up to a maximum of 100% of its net asset value, subject to a combined limit of 100% of its net asset value. The Fund has also received exemptive relief that permits it to short sell up to 300% of the Fund’s net asset value in government securities, as defined in the relief.

Before you invest in any fund, consider how the fund would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

Effective 4:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on February 27, 2026, Class E-USD units of RP Alternative Credit Opportunities Fund are no longer available for purchase by new investors. Investors who hold Class E-USD units of the Fund on February 27, 2026 will only be able to purchase new Class E-USD units through reinvested distributions and pre-authorized contributions.

How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

The Manager has rated this Fund's risk as low to medium.

Because this is a new fund, the risk rating is only an estimate by the Manager. Generally, the rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

Low	Low to Medium	Medium	Medium to High	High
-----	----------------------	--------	----------------	------

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund's returns, see the "What are the risks of investing in the Fund?" section of the Fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

Who is this fund for?

This Fund may be right for you if:

- you want your investment to be hedged to the U.S. dollar;
- you seek risk-adjusted return;
- you want to gain exposure to global fixed income securities by employing alternative investment strategies; and
- you can tolerate a low to medium level of risk.

A word about tax

In general, you will have to pay tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the Fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class E-USD units of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among classes of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales Charges:

There is only one sales charge option when you buy Class E-USD units of the Fund.

Sales Charge Option	What you pay in per cent (%)	in US dollars ($)	How it works
Initial sales charge	up to 5%	up to US$50 per US$1,000 invested	You may have to pay a sales commission of up to 5% based on the net asset value of the units you acquire when you buy Class E-USD units. You and your representative negotiate the amount you pay. We deduct the sales charge from the gross amount at the time of purchase and pay it to your representative's firm as a commission.

2. Fund Expenses:

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns. The Fund's expenses are made up of the management fee, fixed administration fee, operating expenses and trading costs. The Fund's annual management fee in respect of Class E-USD is 1.25%. Because this Fund is new, the operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available. The Manager will be responsible for operating costs of the Fund, other than certain fund costs that are payable directly by the Fund, in exchange for the payment by the Fund of a fixed rate administration fee of 0.25% per annum.

Performance Fee

The Fund pays the Manager a performance fee based on the total return, after expenses, of Class E-USD of the Fund during each calendar quarter. It is equal to 15% of the amount by which the total return of Class E-USD of the Fund during the calendar quarter exceeds the "high water mark" in which a performance fee has been previously paid for the class.

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own units of the Fund. It is for services and advice that your representative and their firm provide to you.

The Manager pays the trailing commission to your representative’s firm. It is paid from the Fund’s management fee and is based on the value of your investment.

For Class E-USD units of the Fund, the Manager pays your representative’s firm a trailing commission of 0.50% each year based on the total value of Class E-USD units. This is the equivalent of US$5.00 per US$1,000 invested.

3. Other Fees: You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch Class E-USD units of the Fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term Trading Fee	A fee of 2% of the amount redeemed may be charged if you redeem units within 30 days of purchasing such units. This fee goes to the Fund.
Switch Fee	You may have to pay a switch fee to your representative or representative’s firm of up to 2% based on the net asset value of the applicable class of units of the Fund being reclassified when you reclassify between classes of the Fund. You may also have to pay a fee to your representative or representative’s firm when you switch units of the Fund for units of another mutual fund. You may negotiate the amount with your representative. Fees charged by your representative’s firm for switches and reclassifications are paid by redeeming units held by you.

What if I Change My Mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive the simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
